Open and Promotional Recruitment for Office Specialist

The Housing Authority of the County of San Mateo (HACSM) is pleased to announce its recruitment for an independent, self-motivated individual to perform a variety of technical, complex, and specialized office support to the department. The Office Specialist position is a full time, permanent position.

HACSM is federally funded through the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and provides housing assistance to low-income families throughout San Mateo County with an annual budget of over $100 million. HACSM is a component unit of the County of San Mateo but a separate entity that utilizes different case management and financial reporting systems from the County. HACSM has separate payroll and benefits from San Mateo County; HACSM employees are not County employees.

Position: Office Specialist

Posting Date: January 24, 2023

Closing Date: Open until position is filled

Salary Range: Office Specialist - $55,681 - $69,602 Annually

Benefits Include: Health insurance (Kaiser), dental and vision coverage, 12 paid holidays per year, vacation leave allowance, sick leave allowance, flexible spending accounts (FSA) for childcare and unreimbursed medical expenses and a defined contribution retirement plan.

- Provide information to the public that requires the use of judgment and the interpretation of policies, rules, or procedures.
- Organize, maintain, and purge various departmental files.
- Type or compose correspondence, reports, forms, and specialized documents from drafts, notes, or brief instructions, using a computer.
- Proofread and check various document types for accuracy, completeness, and compliance with departmental policies and regulations.
- Monitor emails and voice mail daily and respond to inquiries accordingly and/or direct inquiries to appropriate staff.
- Enter and retrieve data and prepare reports using an on-line or personal computer system; review such reports for accuracy and make corrections, as required.
- Operate standard office equipment such as copiers and scanners.
- Oversee and personally perform a variety of office administrative details such as evaluating needs for office supplies and ordering office supplies, arranging for the repair of equipment, transmitting information to program participants and landlords, and keeping reference materials up to date; may arrange meetings by notifying participants and reserving rooms, etc.
- Act as receptionist and receive and screen visitors; communicate effectively and professionally with a diverse population.
- May train others in work procedures or direct the work of others on a project or relief basis.
- Perform related duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

Knowledge of:

- Office administrative practices and procedures, including filing and the operation of standard office equipment.
- Basic business data processing principles and the use of computer system.
- Policies and procedures related to the team to which assigned.
- Proper form for typed materials.
- Business arithmetic, including percentages and decimals.
- Correct English usage, including spelling, grammar, and punctuation.
- Record keeping principles and procedures.

Skill/Ability to:

- Perform technical, specialized, and complex office support work.
- Organize, prioritize, and coordinate work activities.
- Read, interpret, and apply rules, policies, and procedures.
- Organize, research and maintain office files.
- Establish and maintain effective working relationships with those contacted in the course of the work.
- Compose routine correspondence from brief instructions.
- Make arithmetic calculations with speed and accuracy.
- Use initiative and sound independent judgment within established guidelines.
- Operate standard office equipment, including a personal computer, telephone, copier, printer, and scanner equipment.

Experience and Education:

Ideal candidates will have a minimum of one year of general clerical, office assistant, customer service, and/or computer experience; however, any combination of education and experience that would likely provide the required knowledge, skills and abilities is qualifying.

Selection Process:

This is a continuous recruitment until the position is filled. The review and selection process will consist of screening employment applications and responses to the supplemental questions included with this recruitment. The Housing Authority will contact qualified candidates for departmental interviews. The position could be filled at any time.
