

Sharing Stories

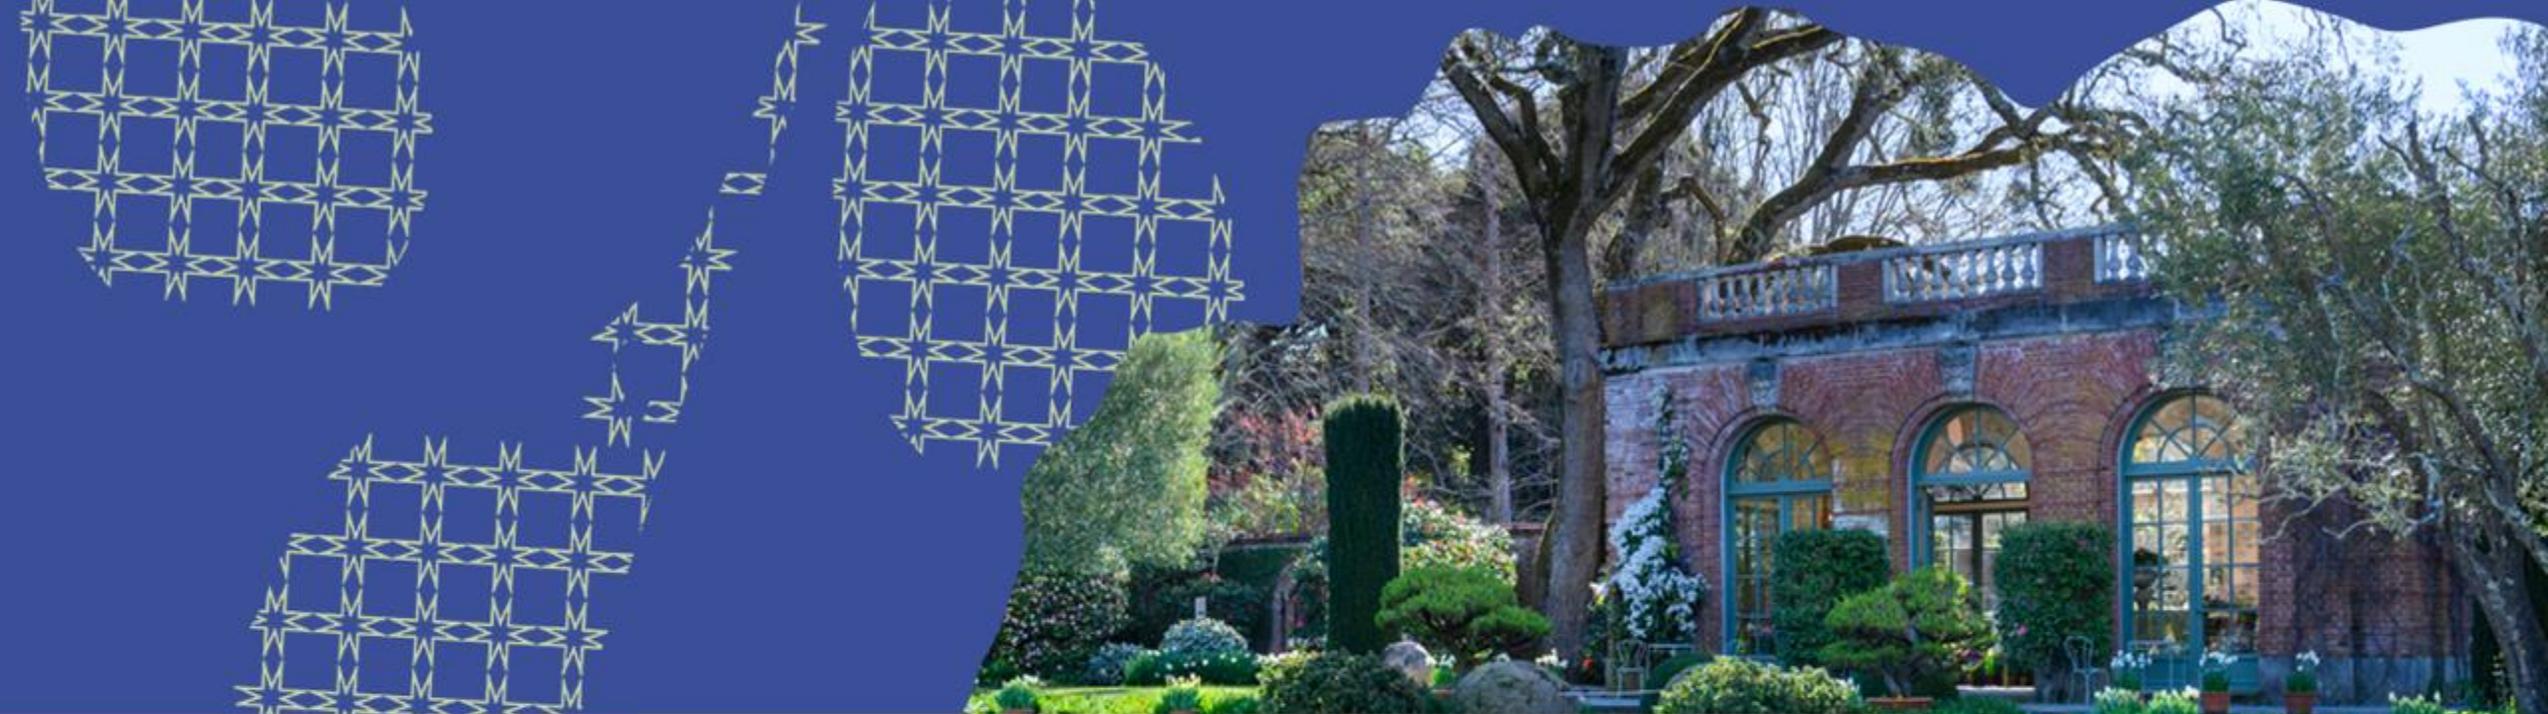

filoli

We acknowledge that Filoli is located on the unceded ancestral homeland of the Ramaytush Ohlone people who are the original inhabitants of the San Francisco Peninsula.

Our Mission

To connect our rich history with a vibrant future through beauty, nature, and shared stories.

Historic House

- Built in 1917
- 56 rooms
- Bourn and Roth families

Formal Garden

- 16 acres
- Winter blooms
- Spring flowers
- Summer Nights
- Fall color

Natural Areas

- Orchard
- Nature Preserve
- Hiking Trail

Holidays

- Lights in the Garden
- House decorated for Christmas & New Years Eve
- Tablescapes in the Ballroom

Partnerships

How can we partner with your organizations?

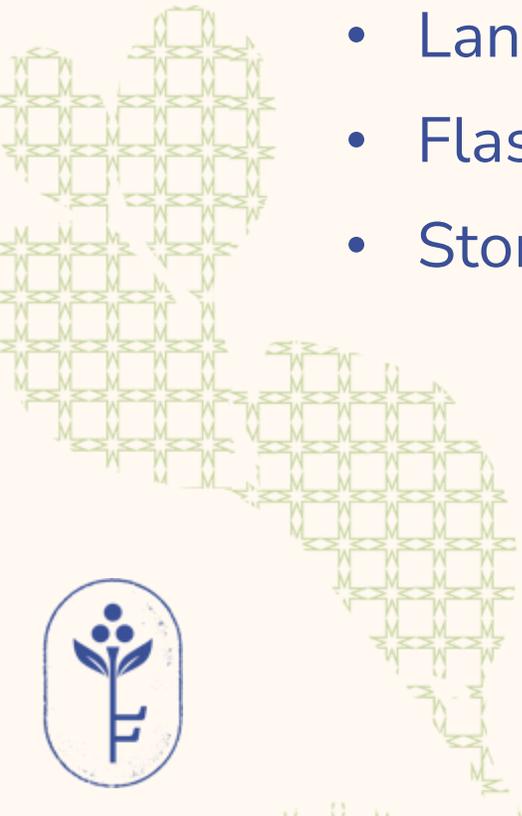

- Access
 - Discover & Go: via Library
 - Museums for All: via SNAP EBT card
- Community resource
- Storytelling
- Place of respite

Current Programs

Stories in Bloom

- Poetry & Art
- Language of Flowers
- Flash Fiction
- Storytelling & Music for MLK Day

Current Programs

Pride Weekend

- Music, dance, art, reflection

Asian American & Pacific Islander Heritage Month

- Bonsai exhibit - translation
- Haiku competition lead by Aileen Cassinetto, Poet Laureate of San Mateo County
- Ikebana display

Current Programs

Orchard Days

- Hispanic Heritage Weekend
- Sukkot
- Local agriculture stories
- Artist collectives
- Musicians

Current Programs

Preschool Program

- Chinatown Community Children's Center
- Peninsula Family Service
- Community Plus Memberships
- Funding to expand beyond pilot program

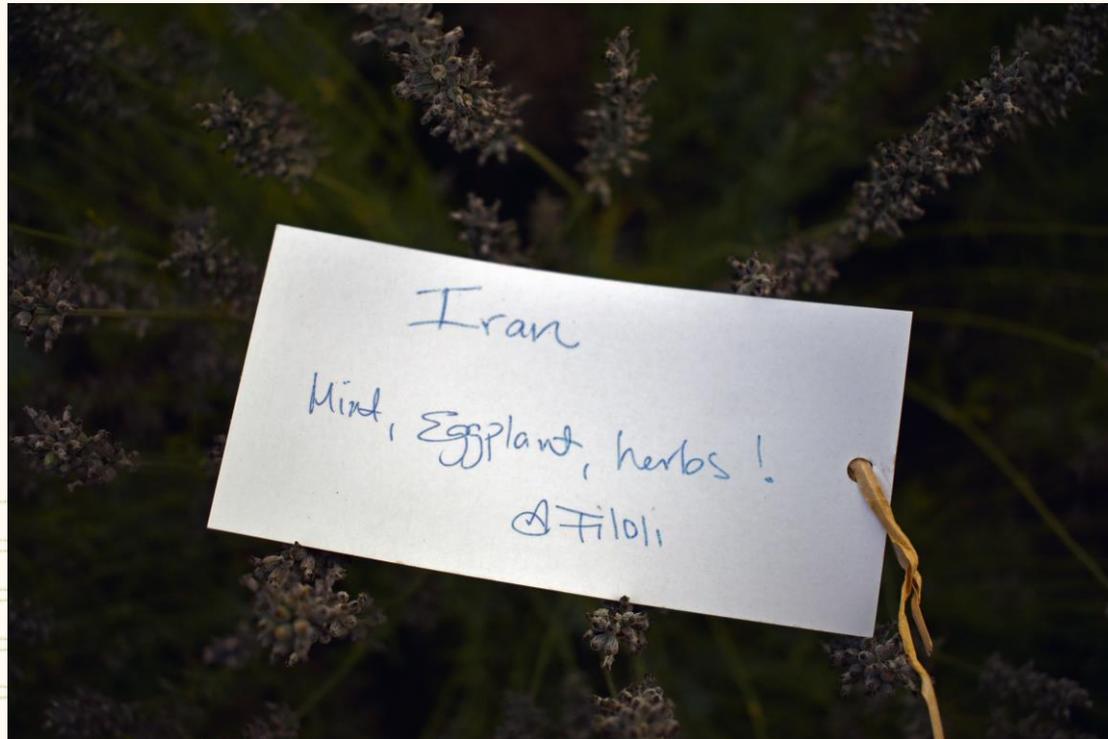

College Internships

- Summer program
- Horticulture
- Facilities
- Marketing
- Recruitment focus on community colleges
- Email efrank@filoli.org for job postings

Vegetable Garden

Exhibits

Stories of Resilience

- Individuals and identity groups who overcame injustices or were historically excluded at Filoli
- Absence of Black and Latino staff, guests, and performers
- Domoto Family
- Taga Family

Exhibits

2023

- Celebrates women creators and women who inspire
- Yoko Kubrik exhibition in Garden
- Co-created exhibit in the House: Share ideas!

How can we help?

How can we welcome the San Mateo County immigrant community?

How can we partner with your organization?

Erika Frank, efrank@filoli.org

